

Player of the Decade, Ronaldinho, scores again and raises a total of US$60,000 for needy children!

AC Milan football ace, Ronaldinho, has been named World Player of the Decade by prestigious British magazine World Soccer.

Based on the votes cast by the readers in the 10 annual votes between 2000 and 2009, the NUTRILITE™ Brand sponsored Brazilian came out on top as the outstanding performer of the past 10 years.

NUTRILITE, the “Official Nutrition Supplement of A.C. Milan and the Milanello Training Centre”, added Ronaldinho to its Team NUTRILITE roster last year. As part of their relationship with Ronaldinho, NUTRILITE, and its parent company the Amway Corporation, appointed Ronaldinho Global Spokesperson for their AMWAY ONE BY ONE™ Campaign for Children.

For every goal that Ronaldinho scores in the Italian League or UEFA Cup, a NUTRILITE Brand donation of US$10,000 will be pledged to the AMWAY ONE BY ONE Campaign to help needy children in the country where the goal is scored.

This season alone, Ronaldinho has scored SIX goals so far – resulting in a massive total of US$60,000 raised for children who need it the most.

Ronaldinho raised US$10,000 for children in Switzerland by scoring the equaliser for AC Milan in the match against FC Zurich on the 8 December.

Ronaldinho has scored FIVE goals at Italian stadiums this season, which means US$50,000 has been raised for Italian children so far!

So start cheering Ronaldinho TODAY and help us raise money for children who need it the most!
